

The background is an abstract, painterly composition. The upper portion is dominated by various shades of blue and light purple, with soft, blended textures. The lower portion features more vibrant colors, including bright orange, yellow, and pink, with more defined, rounded shapes that resemble stylized clouds or organic forms. The overall effect is a dreamlike, ethereal atmosphere.

1 Write a poem and title it. You can choose to have a theme for your poetry, or you can write poems that are unrelated. Do not be constrained by the form presented. Feel free to create any type of poem you choose.

1 This Is a Poem's Title

by [Your Name Here]

1 Write or type here.

Then read it to a peer.

A poem appears before your eyes!

Draft your words. Then revise.

Up to 12 lines fit nicely.

That would be 3 stanzas precisely,
each with 4 lines, more or less.

What will come out? Who can guess!

Is your poem about a flower?

Is your poem about power?

Is your poem really done?

Or is it only just begun?
