 TEKS K.2.B.ii Use letter-sound relationships to decode, including VC, CVC, CCVC, and CVCC words. ELPS 4.C.i Speaking; 4.C.iv Reading

Directions Have students read the sentences, using letter-sound relationships to decode the VC and CVC words. Model: The sound for a is /a/. The sound for m is /m/. I will say the sounds together to read the word: /a/ /m/, am. Then have them circle the words with short a and underline the words with initial s.
