

Spell Words

MY TURN

Sort and spell

say	ox	can
sit	no	clap

Handwriting practice lines for the left column. The word 'ox' is shown in dotted lines for tracing. Below it, the words 'can', 'sit', and 'clap' are written in large pink letters on the lines.

Handwriting practice lines for the right column. The words 'say' and 'no' are written in large pink letters on the lines.

TEKS K.2.C.i Spell words with VC, CVC, and CCVC; TEKS K.2.C.ii Spell words using sound-spelling patterns; TEKS K.2.C.iii Spell high-frequency words from a research-based list. ELPS 5.C.i Writing; 5.C.ii Writing; 5.C.iii Writing

Directions Say: Short a is often spelled o, short i is often spelled e, and short o is often spelled o in words with two or three letters. Some words do not follow a pattern, so we have to remember how to spell them. Have students spell and write words with the VC, CVC, or CCVC pattern in the left column and the high-frequency words in the right column.